Biography

Bonnitta Ritchie is a Co-Chair for the Tagish Local Advisory Council. Tagish is located on the Six Mile River which joins Marsh Lake and Tagish Lake. The population varies from a low of approximately 300 in the winter and double that in the summer. Tagish is a popular recreation area and during the summer months, the population with visitors is often over 1000.

Born and raised in mostly rural Ontario, much of her adult life has been North of 60. Her 3 children grew up in Yukon and graduated from schools in Whitehorse. From 1990 until 2002, Bonnitta lived in the Lower Mainland returned to Whitehorse in 2002.

Over the many years, she has worked in the Territorial Court, been a Yukon Housing Manager (Whitehorse), and an Employment Standards Officer. Since returning to Yukon, Bonnitta has worked at Yukon Council on Disability, Victoria Faulkner Women's Centre, and Yukon Women's Transition Home.

Since moving to Tagish full time, she works a casual term position for Canada Post and has worked at Post Offices in Tagish, Carcross, Atlin, Teslin, and Beaver Creek.

Always an active volunteer since moving to Tagish, Bonnitta is going into her 3rd term on the Tagish Advisory Council.
