Biography

Tara grew up in the picturesque town of Hope, BC. She has always enjoyed nature and a more laid-back pace so when she heard of an opportunity to head north to work she took it.

She started her Yukon life by working in Pelly Crossing and became fascinated by the spell of the Yukon. After spending a gloomy, wet winter in the Fraser Valley Tara decided to make the Yukon her new home.

She travelled North with her car and her cat in 2002 and has been here ever since. She moved to Carmacks in the Fall of 2002 and fell in love with the community's rich heritage and First Nations history. Tara has served as a Councillor for the Village of Carmacks since 2009, and as a Director for AYC since 2012.

Tara notes, "Being a member of AYC has given me the opportunity to foster some amazing relationships with fellow municipal folks from all over the territory. It has opened my eyes to the uniqueness of each Yukon Community, even when we are all dealing with similar issues."

Tara is a mother to two children and spends her days managing Dunena Zra Sunch'i Ku Daycare for Little Salmon Carmacks First Nation. She is also a member of NHEHD Yukon.
