The Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected from among all appointed elected officials of Member Municipalities at an Annual General Meeting, and shall hold office for a period of two (2) years.

5.5 Cease to be an elected official

Notwithstanding Section 4.1, if a Member of The AYC's Executive Committee ceases to be an elected municipal official, their position on the Board of Directors shall be automatically vacated.

5.6 Filling vacancies on Executive Committee

If any vacancies occur on the Executive Committee, all remaining Members of the Executive Committee, if they are willing, shall move up one position to fill the vacancy.

Example: In the event that the President's position becomes vacant, the First Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President.

In the event that the President and First Vice-President's positions are vacant, or if the First Vice-President is not willing to assume the duties of President, the Second Vice-President shall assume the duties of President and other vacant positions shall also be filled moving up.

5.7 Executive Committee – less than three (3)

If at any time, the Executive Committee is reduced to less than three (3) Members, the President and Board of Directors shall appoint a replacement from elected officials of Member Communities. Such appointees shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting or until they cease to retain elected municipal status, whichever comes first.

5.8 Subject to removal

Any officer appointed in accordance with Section 5.7 shall hold office consistent with the current term of elected officers but shall be subject to removal by a majority vote of the Members at a special meeting of the Board, called specifically to deal with such a removal.

5.9 Failure to retain elected municipal status

In the event that all Officers of the Executive Committee fail to retain elected municipal status during an election year, the remaining directors shall appoint a President. Such an appointment shall be in effect until the next Annual General Meeting.

5.10 Election and Term of Office

Association of Yukon Communities
Procedural By-law no. 2018-001

The President, the First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, and if applicable, the Vice President at Large, shall be elected as Officers of The Association from among persons who are qualified to become Officers as indicated under ARTICLE II of these By-laws, by ordinary resolution at each annual meeting at which an election is required with a Term of Office of Two (2) Years. All other Director positions shall be an appointment made by individual Member municipalities and Associate Members.

5.10.1 Elections by ballot-vote

An Annual General Meeting of the Members of The AYC shall be held after its fiscal year end and no later than the last day of its anniversary month.

7.2 Special General Meetings

Special general meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the President or a majority of the Executive Members or the Board upon the President receiving a written request, which specifies the reason or reasons requesting the special meeting, from not less than fifty percent plus one Member (50% +1). Such a special meeting shall be held on such day and at such time and place as may be determined by the President, provided that such meeting shall not be held later than (60) days following receipt by the President of the said request, with a minimum of 21 days notice being provided to the Membership.

7.2.1 In the event that the offices of the President, First Vice-President, and Second Vice-President are vacant at the same time, the Mayors of any two Member Communities may call a Special General Meeting.

7.3 Notice of Meetings

Notice of the day, time and place of meetings of Members shall be given to each Member who, at the close of business on the record date for notice or if no record date for notice is fixed, at the close of business on the preceding day on which the notice is given, is entitled to receive notice by the following means:

7.3.1 Period for giving notice

By mail, courier, electronic or other communication facility or personal delivery to each such Member, during a period of no less than twenty one (21) days before the day on which the meeting is to be held.

7.3.2 Notice of General Meeting

Notice of a general meeting shall be given to:

- a) Every member shown on the register of members on the day notice is given or sent; and
- b) The professional accountant, if Article 10.3.1 applies
- c) No other person is entitled to receive a notice of general meeting.

7.3.3 Exceptional circumstances - Board of Director meetings

In exceptional circumstances, and as determined by the President, meetings of the Board of Directors may be called and held by telephone, internet or other means of conferencing and where all Members can be heard and participate in, provided that notice of the meeting shall be in writing and delivered, by mail, courier, electronic or other communication facility or personal delivery to each such Member to each Director at least 48 hours prior to the date of such meeting.

7.3.4 Exception on Notice

No formal notice of a meeting shall be necessary if ALL Directors are present at an ongoing meeting, or if quorum is present and each absent director waives notice of an upcoming meeting, before it takes place.

7.3.5 Notice of any Annual General Meeting

Shall include a statement informing the Members that the comparative financial statements, report of the Public Accountant, and any other documents required by the Act, are available at the registered office of The Association and that the Members may, upon request obtain a copy of those financial statements and other documents free of charge at the registered office or by prepaid mail, as well as a detailed report to any consideration to amending its By-laws.

- 1) Notice of any Annual General Meeting and Special Meeting, shall also contain in addition to the notice of the day, time and place of such meeting, a notice of all items of business to be considered at the meeting.

7.3.6 Notice by mail

A notice sent by mail shall be deemed to have been given on the fifth day following that on which the notice is posted and in proving that notice has been given it is sufficient to prove the notice was properly addressed and put in Canada Post receptacle.

7.4 Quorum

The quorum for any annual or special meeting of the Members shall be a total of sixty (60) percent of the eight (8) Member Communities and one (1) Local Advisory Council.

7.4.1 Where a quorum is not present at a general meeting, no business other than the election of a chairperson and the adjournment or termination of the meeting shall be conducted.

7.4.2 If at any time during a general meeting there ceases to be a quorum present, business then in progress shall be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.

7.4.3 If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be terminated; but in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present constitute a quorum.

7.5 Speaking and Voting

All elected officials of Member Communities as defined under Article 2 who are Members of The AYC, shall be entitled to attend all Annual and Special General Meetings of The AYC, have the right to take part in discussions and except as otherwise provided for in this By-law, to take part in the discussion and vote on all matters presented to the Membership.
